I am trying to figure out how to post pictures.

So, if this works, this is a picture of some Kustoms I had a few years ago.

This is an early Kustom head. The guy says it is 1965.

The serial number tag is no longer on the amp.

At the bottom where it normally would say "By ROSS INC.", instead, it says "Ross and Myers, Inc."

I never noticed this before - do other early heads say "Ross and Myers, Inc" ?

If you want to try posting pictures, go to Hope you can figure it out quicker than I did.

Les,

HTML code doesn't work in postings on the board, but you can use FUDcode (aka UBBcode aka BB code aka many other names) to achieve the same effect. To post an image, copy the code that ImageShack provides that looks something like

`[URL=http://img441.imageshack.us/my.php?image=imagenamename.jpg][IMG]http://img441.imageshack.us/my.php?image=imagenamename.th.jpg[/IMG][URL]`

so the images you posted are

[URL=http://img441.imageshack.us/my.php?image=kustomsparklehead17f616qj0.jpg][IMG]http://img441.imageshack.us/img441/8990/kustomsparklehead17f616qj0.th.jpg[/IMG][URL]

and

[url=http://img441.imageshack.us/my.php?image=1000076imgxo7.jpg][img]http://img441.imageshack.us/img441/8584/1000076imgxo7.th.jpg[/img][url]

I always thought that it sounded great for guitar - my best sounding guitar amp was a bass amp.

Thanks for the help, Hayden.

Les:

My oldest head is a K-200 Cascade that came with the original horizontal, non-ported 2-15 CTS bottom. It has the Ross and Myers marking on the front.

The silver head (from eBay) is only the third one I've seen with this marking. A photo of mine used to be on JC's Kustom Player site. (What ever happened to JC by the way?)
