OK gang ~ I changed the Kustom pictures to www.Kustomplayer.com ~ I have yet to receive any additional pictures from anyone to add to the site. I know there are a bunch out there - so give me a hand and send them along - Dan has promised to link the site to the our Vintage page soon - As we get more pictures I can break them down into small groups - and obviously any suggestions would be appreciated - A web site builder I am not! But ya get what ya pay for - and I do work cheap! Jc

What I want to know is how does a guy spending that much time on his kustoms, and a web site, have time to keep his yard looking that good?!...me,,, I'm lucky if I swipe the mower through it once a week just so I can find the dog!

Just went to the picture site. Makes me smile just to see all that T&R! Still amazed at the many Kustom variations. If I had a picture, I would surely upload, but still trying to recapture my old 70's config. I did re-find a Gibson EB-0, now for the K200 2-15C! To Kustom enthusiasts... more pictures please!

I've got some pics at home.. I'm out of town right now...but I'll do some diggin around this weekend, scan some and shoot them over to you for consideration.. I think there's one of me huggin my kombo 1 that I got just last year as a 25th anniversary gift from my wife....btw:...whoever has the Sherry Crow pic of her perched on the cascade cab...that's a classic one.. I've got a copy of it...I'm not a big fan of hers, but that one is a keeper and I appreciate her touring in all charcoal kustoms last year...classy!
And we should not forget our boys at Flipp..talk about some kustoms in action!

ok.. I've sent a couple of my favorites in there..still want to see that one of Sherry Crow on the cascade (I've got a copy if you need it)..and I think we need that tatoo pic (got that too)from Terry (the ultimate testimony!)I'm vowing in a couple weeks to do a complete group shot..my office is repaving our parking lot..as soon as they are done I'll go over on the weekend and pull all the toys out..ya'll ain't never seen so much black tuck n roll! but for now I'm hoping JC will post the pic from a friend with a full sized exact replica of the Lost in Space robot standing along side his kustom kollection...the boy is crazier than me!

ET! The new pic's have been posted - The Kustom With Robot is in Misc - You have to see this room gang ~ I have also loaded the ET Red Guitar and a big Bass rig in 2x15's ~ As far as the other pic's - Please send them on - I have tried to keep the pic's smallish for downloading - Let me know if it's taking too long to load - I am fortunate to have cable access and tend to forget about load in times! Sorry - Jc
