it was 1969..and this boy had a shiny black kustom K25C sitting under the tree with a big red bow tied on the top handle.. I have never been so excited in my entire life just knowing that christmas was days away and that amp was already sitting in the house!
anyway...my first little rig is still gleaming and sits proudly as the center piece to the rest of the kollection of this sick boy...so once I again I find myself just as proud, saying Merry Christmas to all...and to all... Play Loud! ET
