Hi,

I believe I have a Kustom k200 guitar for sale. I got it at a pawn shop. I'm not sure where or how to attach or post pictures of it on this forum. It is dark red and I don't think the pick ups, tuning pegs or the tailpiece/whammy bar are original but I'm not sure. Pick ups and tail look period correct but am doubtful. I wanted to see how much interest there was in this guitar. Please email me if you are interested. In very good condition. I'm about 95% sure it's a Kustom based on the neck and the body. Thanks.
