How much does the SC150 w/4 10's weigh? I couldn't find the specs. I want to buy a dolly/hand truck to move this little beast around when I need to. Any recommendations for a dolly/hand truck?

I've got 2 fold up dollies. Very convenient. Like this:

<https://www.walmart.com/ip/Heavy-Duty-Folding-Hand-Truck/37226227> or similar.

Several places sell them; Wal-Mart, Amazon, etc. I think I bought one at Sam's Club.

I just sent one UPS. Mine was the SC 100 4x10 and it weighed 72 pounds with cover.

I keep one of these in my car:

<https://www.samsclub.com/sams/magna-cart-folding-hand-truck/prod7290002.ip>

Fold flat, doesn't weigh much, holds a lot. I used to use it to haul my SC150 2x10, worked great. Only downside, fully-extended, the handle doesn't come up terribly high, so if you're tall like me, you may have to stoop over a little.

That's the one I mentioned.
