Hey Kollektors... Any Ideas and thoughts regarding the next Kustom Kollektor's Konvention? Vacation book is being passed around and would be nice to know when and where so plans can be made. Several ideas/locations were passed around last year B4 having it in Chanute last May. I'm game for anywhere..... Let the negotiations begin.....

Sounds good to me.... Shannon has Vacation scheduled for 1st weekend in May... my vac isn't scheduled but I have that weekend tentatively free if nothing else ...I was going to Durango to ride trains and sightsee but we could come to Terry's and schedule another week off later. Durango isn't set in stone yet... we need to get a date down so plans/arrangements can be made.....

Ha well I think Terry's is the best spot, all the coolest gear and that way we all just have to show up and jam, I guess we can bring a Kustom.. but to tell you the honest truth... .Terry has damn near everything we have already!!!

Not nessesarily for sale though IF I had a nice gold K100-1 with 2-12 CTS bin in line I'd be willing to move it....

Must maintain my colors....at least 1 of each...

Yeah I can understand having one of each. Really though I think owning them and using them are two things that should be done. I love having "mint" rigs but they are not gig-able risking them to be damaged. I love to have people come up and say man that's a cool looking amp! But Gold is in my honest opinion the rarest color, and I think it is a must for any collector.. mint condition or not I love these amps, and ill own them forever.

I'd like to keep my colors I don't have a 2-12 cab yet. I do like to gig mine when possible tho I have a 4-10 cab and 300 watt Behringer set I couldn't care less about getting torn up on gigs. I plan on taking a Blue 200-1 and 2-15 JBL D140 to my 12-16 gig... An upscale party.....

I have kicked myself repeatedly for not getting the Gold B-6 and 2-15 CTS rig for 400 that was in Branson,Mo

That cascade K50 is still there Craig. Didn't look like they had sold any more of the Kustoms. Same ones still there. This was of 2 weeks ago.

If we do Terry's house, I'm not bringing any amps, Just a empty trunk and checkbook, hopefully I'll go home broke with a trunk full of kustoms.
