You haven't found anything new, the same guy has them advertised in the for sale section. He is a member of the Kustom Klub!

LOL - I thought you guys would gobble these up - And I'm not just a member of the Kustom Forum - I'm one of the originals!

Grind or drill the old handle off the mounting bracket and just rivet the new one on - And for $10 a handle? I'm giving them away!
