I sent a email off to kustom Dan(the big man of the site) on the morning when I saw the postings,and hopefully he has the tools to block this A- hole!

Easiest way is to click on the link below a post that says "Report message to a moderator", and if it doesn't get taken care of then send me (webmaster (at) vintagekustom.com) an email. KustomDan doesn't have much time to spend on the site anymore and I've never been active on it so we're unlikely to see it if its not reported. I cleaned up the spams from 30 Dec 2009 and banned & deleted the account. Not bad to have our first spammer in just over 10 years from when the site first launched.
