STILL Looking for a black 2x15 either loaded or unloaded. Straight or slant does not matter. Have an unloaded blue 2x15 to trade or cash.
I would think on a forum this size that a black cab would be out there?

Wished you lived closer. Got a black cab, would like the cascade cab. Wonder what freight would be on an empty cab? Email me if you are interested in swapping empty cabs.

I am interested - mine is a slant, aluminum ports and an 8 out of 10. Please describe yours - here is a photo.
