Hey everyone just wanting to see if my amp is worth anything.
It's a 150-6 with a Altec Lansing 15inch speaker. Everything works great, all knobs are clean, sounds great. Tuck and roll is a little torn in spots. the only thing thats been done to it is added a 3 wire plug.

Yes your amp is worth something. vintage Kustoms are great amps. Where are you located? There are quite a few collectors that could be interested. Value is decided between buyer and seller; condition both electronically and cosmetically are factors.

A good functioning Altec speaker alone is worth 125 bucks!
