Hello,

I am looking for red Kustom tuck and roll heads or cabs. Ideally, I would love two red 4x12 PA columns or a red PA head.

My plan is to create a red, white and blue wall of awesomeness for when I DJ events and car shows.

I currently own 4x12 cabinets in blue and white.

I am originally from Kansas and love classic rock and cars, so I have always been drawn to Kustom equipment.

I have a set of columns (empty) that I can recover in red if you want them. I've done a few amps with good results. I detail all folds and direction of pleats and stitching as original. I can send you pictures of my work. email at paulie1952@yahoo.com.

Thanks for the offer paulie. I saw a purple combo on ebay. Did you do that one? It looked pretty rad.

I actually found a red 2x15 combo. I am going to make this a subwoofer, but I might take you up on your offer down the road.

How much would something like this cost?

Yes the purple one was mine. I was thinking around $550 +shipping for the columns. I would charge about $450 to recover. Still trying to figure out what I should charge. I think I am in the ballpark at $300 for a 2x15 speaker and $200 for a head. Whats your thoughts on this? Regards, Paul

I saw a nice pair of blue columns, on ebay go for 450, so I would say that 550 for perfect vinyl doesn't sound off.
