I think you could make a small fortune selling us the secret on how you got the photo on the site. Whats in the lower left corner with the cover on it? I see it has a handle.

You should give a list and model numbers. Is that a blue K250 on the right side and what speakers are in the cabinet. Covers for the amps shown? I see the charcoal K100-2 head, what cabinet is it, 115 or 2x12 and what speakers are in it? Ballpark prices might be nice. I'm in Michigan so shipping would be on the high side for me to make an offer.

yes shipping is going to be high and that is a blue 250 on the right.... but to anybody that wants to ad a picture to the site all the have to do is upload it to the internet (i use photobucket.com) once you upload it the site will actually give you the html to imbed it on webpages..... and on the left with the handle is a 100 combo in black tuck n' roll i don't have any covers besides the ones pictured

Is the 100 combo a 2x10? You don't have a blue sparkle 2x12 cabinet do you? Is the charcoal head a 100-1 or a 100-2?

Thanks!
